Applications for mortgages must be made in writing, specifying the property offered, accompanied by the title deeds, the receipts of the Contribucion Directa tax, and setting forth that the property is free from all incumbrance, or if not the incumbrance that exists thereon, and which is to be paid off by the mortgage. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

A MEDICAL PHENOMENON.—Is it not amazing to see an invalid gaining strength while under the influence of a purgative? Yet this is the case with every sick person who resorts to Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills. They open up the system while expelling its impurities through the proper channel. In cases of dropsy they appear to stimulate the absorbents and to prevent the formation of water in the cellular tissues. How these results are produced physicians must determine for themselves; and meanwhile there is abundant proof that dropsical affections as well as indigestion and bilious complaints are removed by their agency.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Mr. Oldendorff's voluminous report of 812 pages reminds us of the Patent-office reports published in the United States, by reason of the variety of useful matter it contains, the order and method in arrangement, and the evident zeal of the compiler in the work commended to his care.

He begins by shewing the difficulties which beset him in his first year of office, and when we consider that the total expenses of the new Department in 1872 were only $12,160 we must come to the conclusion that the country has had good value for the money. The correspondence alone shews 1476 letters despatched and 515 received, besides the distribution of the Anales de Agricultura for the diffusion of useful knowledge in such matters. Samples of tobacco grown in Corrientes, Salta and Tucuman were forwarded to Hamburg and reported on most favorably. White quebracho was sent to England and declared preferable to box-wood for engraving purposes: but no reply has been obtained respecting red quebracho, which is so hard that Mr. Oldendorff proposes to use it in some cases for railway bars. Exchanges of seeds and plants have been effected with Kew Gardens and the like establishments in Prussia, Washington, India and Australia, all the officials shewing Mr Oldendorff the greatest readiness to encourage such efforts.

The want of suitable premises is much felt, as Mr. Oldendorff is forming a museum of mineral samples, seeds, implements and other matters pertaining to this subject. He sent silk-cocoons to San Carlos colony, in Santa Fe, which have turned out admirably; and obtained from Professor Puiggari a chemical analysis of sweet potatoes and mani for Mr. Arguello of Cordoba, with a view to extract oil. He is trying to generalize information respecting insects, a most important matter when he tells us that Illinois lost last year from insects a value of £4 millions sterling in crops.

He proposes to get up a Model-farm of 400 acres, at a rent say of 3,000$f. per annum, for the purpose of acclimatizing and experimenting on seeds and plants: the total expense of gardeners &c. he estimates at 12,640$ yearly. There would be attached a cabaña of useful animals, and he suggests a sum of 2,000$ to be expended on a lot of Angora goats. In order the more effectually to promote the objects of the Department he further requires 15 Inspectors for travelling through the Provinces, who would foment and encourage agriculture, and make monthly reports; also a translator, who would carry on the correspondence of the Department with England, U. States, France and Germany, besides copying out extracts from foreign papers. All these extras would bring up the expenses of his Department for the year 1874 to 104,624$, and he recommends the Government as soon as possible to make an Agricultural Census, which would cost about 100,000$.

It is not likely the Government will accede to the census, for, however useful it may be, the cost would be very heavy. Until people get accustomed to the Agricultural Department, it is better not to alarm them with heavy expenses.

Mr. Oldendorff adopts Mr. Wilcken's report on the colonies, which shews that 16,678 colonists have in actual cultivation 510,000 acres (say 75 square leagues), their farms covering an area of 1,100,000 acres, and representing a value of just two millions sterling. The colonists are mostly married, forming 3185 families, and cultivating one-eighth the area under tillage in the seven Australian colonies. We have ample room, says Mr. Oldendorff, for 300 million settlers, and ought to go ahead like the State of Minnesota if we had a Homestead Law as in the United States, where every settler, on declaring his intention to become a citizen, is presented with a farm-grant of 160 acres. Mr. Oldendorff, while we write, is presenting his own petition to the Government-house to be enrolled an Argentine citizen.

We cannot agree with his returns on sheep, as he estimates the province of Buenos Ayres to have only 45 millions, although producing 160 million pounds of wool. We should say there are over 60 million sheep in this province. The Finance Minister shews that the Argentine Republic exported last year 210 million pounds of wool, which represents fully 70 to 80 million sheep for the Republic.

He lays much emphasis on the propriety of curing scab in sheep, which is computed to destroy a proportion of ¼ lb. wool in each fleece, equal to £200,000 per annum. As regards Angora goats he shews that Rivadavia ordered their importation so far back as 1826, and Mr. Barker's report of his establishment at Las Peñas, especially written for the Department, proves how suitable they are for Cordova and other hilly provinces. He calls the attention of Government to the imperious necessity of protecting the vicuña and chinchilla, to prevent the total destruction of these animals: the letters of Messrs. Zuviria and Guzman from Rioja and Salta confirm his views herein.

The planting of trees is another matter to which it is impossible to attach too much importance: he reminds us that Palestine and Spain have been rendered a comparative wilderness by cutting down the trees, and the rain fall thereby sensibly diminished. The difference of rainfall in parts of the River Plate is extraordinary, viz. 40 inches annually at M.Video and 8 at Mendoza, gradually diminishing the more we enter the Pampas. Of equal necessity is it to preserve existing forests, which in some places are being ruthlessly cut down. For example the Cordoba and Tucuman railway has liberty to provide itself with 800,000 sleepers in this manner, according to the concession.

Fisheries are, in Mr. Oldendorff's idea, a source of wealth hitherto untouched among us: he points to the efforts of the indefatigable Mr. Rouquaud, of Santa Cruz river in Patagonia, and recommends that a committee be appointed to go there and report on the prospects of this industry. Why should it not, he says, prove as valuable as in Holland, where it is the foremost item of national revenue?

The long-debated question of native-grown wines is one which commands his warmest sympathies. The single province of Mendoza has at present no fewer than 2,000 cuadras (over 8,000 acres) under vineyards, and some years half the vintage is not gathered because there are neither buyers for the wine, nor means of conveying it to B. Ayres, nor vessels to hold it until a market be found. He points to California where the wine-industry was unknown in 1860, and the exports in 1870 amounted to 3 millions of gallons.

We have mentioned enough to give a proper idea of the nature of Mr. Oldendorff's report to Congress, and we do not speak in a merely complimentary sense when we say that Pres. Sarmiento made a happy selection in confiding to him the Department of Agriculture, which promises to be of the highest utility to the Republic.

LATEST FROM SPAIN.

Madrid, July 15th.

The Communists or International ists seized the town of Alcoy on the 11th, shot the Mayor and Receiver of Taxes, set fire to 60 houses and burned them down; besides 5 cotton factories, and threatened to shoot all the Nat. Guards shut up in the town-hall. The Government at once telegraphed to Gen. Sanchez to take the field, and sent another telegram to Malaga dismissing the Governor. News arrived next morning (12th) of the defeat and death of Gen. Cambrinetty, the rebels taking all his force prisoners, with arms, artillery, &c. The Communists at Alcoy after burning and shooting a great deal proclaimed the Commune in Spain: among the other atrocities they put an old gentleman into a petroleum bath and set fire to him. The Minister declared in the Cortes that the leaders were foreigners unknown at Alcoy. The Government promised to punish the authors of such excesses whereupon Deputy Robledo said, "If you don't put a stop to them we must have Don Carlos." Gen. Carbajal left Malaga to attack the Communists, but part of his army deserted and returned to Malaga. Gen. Velarde was then sent, and at the same time news arrived of the fleet at Carthagena having mutinied.

On the 13th the Communists allowed women or children to leave Alcoy, but no males: they had locked up all the priests, and burned down Villagordo's paper-mill and Ruiz Perez's factory. Velarde with 7 battalions arrived in front of the town, when 30 of his men mutinied, but the Communists took fright and escaped that night, allowing Velarde to enter next morning, when he disarmed the militia, but was unable to put out the fires that raged on all sides. The details communicated by Velarde are too horrible for publication; the country around was crowded with fugitives escaping from the Communists.

Carthagena and Murcia also proclaimed the Commune and committed similar excesses, the rebels being moreover in possession of the forts, railways and telegraphs. The fleet at first refused to join them, but General Contreras, who commanded the Communists, gained over some of the vessels, and when the Minister of Marine tried to reach the scene of disorder he was stopped at Palma: what has since become of His Excellency no one knows. Yesterday telegrams from Barcelona announced similar movements there and Deputy Prefunio accused the President of the Republic with complicity with the Communists. Agitation prevailed last night in Madrid, especially since the reaction in Malaga, where bands go about crying Viva La Orden! The frigates Almanza and Vittoria proclaimed the Commune, obliging their officers to go ashore. The Communist leader, Aurich, is brother to the Minister of Marine. At Alcoy there were over 50 people put to death. The Madrid authorities have the garrison under arms. It is rumored Padre Santa Cruz has been dismissed by Don Carlos. Elio, the Carlist leader, is aided by 8 German officers. Gen. Ripoll marches against Malaga. Punta la Reyna garrison surrendered to the Carlists.

LATEST FROM UNITED STATES.

New York, July 2.

A long catalogue of fires and similar disasters has been announced in the last three days, the fires being accelerated by a drought which for nearly a month has prevailed in the Middle States and portions of New England and the Lake region.

The town of Michigamme, in Marquette County, Michigan, on Lake Superior, was almost entirely destroyed by fire on January 19, the flames communicating from the burning woods around the town. At least eight persons were burned to death, and others are missing. The people fled for safety into the lake. A severe fire at Pottsville, in the Pennsylvania coal region, June 20, destroyed a large number of buildings and burned two children to death, the loss of property being stated at $200,000. Several persons were injured by the falling walls. Destructive fires for several days have been raging in the forests of Schuylkill Co., in which Pottsville is situated, destroying much timber and seriously interfering with coal mining operations. A large number of mining settlements have been burnt out, and the loss is estimated at a considerable sum. There have been other forest fires reported, notably from Canada, where they are raging in the woods north and north-east of Toronto, burning over thousands of acres, and extending at intervals for more than sixty miles. In Kent County, New Brunswick, a fire in the woods is also announced, which is sweeping along the line of the Intercolonial Railway now in course of construction, and by the burning of their storehouses and other buildings causing heavy loss to the contractors. Near Kensington, New York, and at a dozen places in the interior of that State, there have also been extensive forest fires, which are aided by the prevailing drought. At East Saginaw, Michigan, June 20, a fire destroyed a large quantity of lumber and 26 buildings, inflicting about $75,000 loss. At Salzburg, near Bay City, Michigan, June 21, the works of the Huron Salt and Lumber Company were burnt, with 11 300 barrels of salt and 1,500,000 feet of lumber, the loss being $125,000. A severe fire at Mount Morris, Livingstone County, N. York, June 22, burnt a number of buildings with their contents, valued at $80,000. Forest fires are raging extensively along the mountains on the Hudson River near Fishkill, New York, and in the neighborhood of West Point. A severe fire at Passaic, new Jersey, on the night of June 21, destroyed two blocks of buildings and caused $70,000 loss, two men being burnt to death. On June 21, at an ordnance store in New York, while a number of old cartridges were being broken up, an explosion occurred, severely injuring four persons, one of whom it is feared will die; the building was set fire to, but speedily extinguished. A lard-oil and candle manufactory was burnt in Cincinnati, June 22, causing $90,000 loss. A fire the same day at Petaluma, California, destroyed some of the principal buildings, the loss being $75,000 On June 23 two houses near Portland, Maine, were burnt, the occupants having to jump out of the windows to escape the flames, one person being killed and two dangerously injured. In Philadelphia a stable was burnt June 23, with eleven valuable horses valued at $60,000. There have also been about a score more fires with smaller loss throughout the country, but these I do not recapitulate.

The cholera, which investigations shows to be in reality a severe type of cholera morbus, is spreading northward and eastward from the towns in the Mississippi Valley, where it first appeared. It chiefly prevails among the lower classes, and it is supposed here to be caused by too great indulgence in summer fruits and vegetables. Fearful of its approach, there is everywhere a general 'cleaning up.' In Nashville, June 23, there were 37 deaths, a decrease of 29 from the previous day. In Memphis the disease is also abating, there being eight deaths June 23. Five deaths also occurred yesterday at Cincinatti, one at Wheeling and one at Portsmouth, Ohio. The disease has also appeared in Paduca, Kentucky, and at Washington, but no deaths were reported from either city yesterday.

The following items are of interest:—The famous yacht America, which 18 years ago won the prize at the International Regatta at Cowes, has been sold by the United States' Government for $5,000; she is 100 tons burden. Lewis Tappen, one of the original American Abolitionists, died in Brooklyn, the 21st of June, aged 85. From Havannah the announcement is made that a Carlist Central Committee has been organized there, and that considerable sums of money have been collected and forwarded to Spain to aid Don Carlos. In the report of the proceedings of a committee of white and coloured citizens at New Orleans, at which pacificatory resolutions were adopted, the name of P. G. Beauregard appears as chairman, but the statement is made that this is not General Beauregard, but a Republican politician of the same name. The yield of the Crown Point and Belcher mines at Gold Hill, Nevada, is stated to be about the rate of three millions of dollars a month in equal parts of gold and silver. The bullion is sent to San Francisco, where the gold is coined into $20 pieces (double eagles), and the silver into bars, the latter being mainly exported. The coinage of the various mints of the United States this year is expected to reach 40 millions of dollars of gold (there is very little silver coinage), exclusive of re-coinage. American coins, by a recent act of Congress, are sent to the mints for re-coinage whenever there is an abrasion of more than one-half of one per cent. The pig iron manufacturers of the United States have had a general meeting at Cleveland, Ohio, and adopted a resolution, declaring that "in the present condition of the iron trade 'in America' it is desirable that the production of metal should be curtailed so far as possible until a more favourable market is established." The United States' steamer Juniata, with the first of the expedition which is to search for the Polaris in the Arctic regions, has sailed for New York.

LATEST FROM PARAGUAY.

Asuncion, July 58, 1873.

"Now is the winter of our discontent,
Made glorious summer by this sun of York;
And all the clouds that low'r'd upon our house,
In the deep bosom of the Ocean buried."

Thus will sing "el Ministro Ferreyra" and all the Government party, because, yesterday the victorious army of the constituted Government made its official entry covered with laurels. Every man-jack of them had a twig of something green stuck in the mouth of his rifle or musket, and a great many had their necks adorned with martial wreaths of flowers. They were a noble lot to look at and about as good food for powder as any of Jack Falstaff's noble army—I should think about 1200 strong, and having about 1000 boys under the age of 20 included.

Really they are a rummy lot to look at for any one who has been accustomed to see a military force as we understand it. However, they won the little game, and all glory to them. This at at least can be said in their favor—that, as far as I have ascertainsd, they behaved very well last night, as I have heard of no rows or fights, which I believe to be generally a necessary accompaniment to such displays.

For the first time for twenty odd days, we had a fine sunshine yesterday, and this morning is as bright and beauteous as a springtide morn. So let the glorious summer waft to poor Paraguay unlimited rays of hope of a happy future, for they are awfully wanted.

Sir Narrow-gauge Robertson has recently made an exploration survey of the Rio Pilcomayo at the desire of Gen. Mitre, and has probably been higher up that river than any other white man since the time of the survey made by the Jesuit fathers. Soon we shall know more about the result of this very interesting exploration.

PARIS LETTER.

(Our Own Correspondent.)

Paris, July 5th, 1873.

The gravest fact of the moment is that Messrs. Thiers and Gambetta having met at the railway station 'en route' for Versailles, positively shook hands. They are "auld acquaintances" and fellow townsmen of Marseilles. The event is enough to shock the Shah it seems, and bodes no good to France. A circumstance more capital was the Dufaure conversation, for it was not a debate, inquiring when the Government, that is to say, the united minorities which form the majority in the assembly, would proceed with the discussion of the new constitutional laws, drafted by M. Thiers in obedience to the commands of the Chamber. It has been decided to go into the matter within one month of the Assembly's re-meeting after long vacation, that is, by next December. For five months the 'provisional' stands adjourned, and the discussion as to the 'definite' will commence with France in complete possession of herself.

The country is quiet, because conscious of its strength, and convinced the ministers can establish nothing definite and only live on the anonymous. The monarchist coalition will go to pieces the moment it is compelled to take a decisive step.

The greatest drawback to the Shah's visit is its duration. He will be the guest of the nation for nearly a fortnight—of a people that becomes weary with the best of spectacles after four and twenty hours. For the first day all will go well; for citizens are anxious to view the Shah's famous aigrette of diamonds; his buttons of Koh-i-noors, and the "sabre de son père" in diamonds and emeralds. To demand, however, from Parisians a sustained attention for fifteen days for any person or for anything, is to simply require an impossibility. It is a matter of surprise to see a government still in office after the lapse of a fortnight, and it is unreasonable to expect the Athenians to feel enthusiastic for a foreign monarch after three days. On the fourth day people will ask, is the Shah yet in Paris?, and on the fifth and following days, whoever ventures to allude to him will be voted a bore and banished from all dinner tables. Why should the King of Kings be exempted from Parisian indifference? Meditate a moment, pulpit-style, on the fate of our own great Elchee or Shah Thiers. He had neither a kulah nor diamond belts, nor ruby cuffs, yet he astonished by reigning as the Shah of France for two years.

Instead of bastinading his subjects, many of the latter now bastinade himself. The latest plan of inflicting the punishment is to rake up his past administrative acts and investigate them. Just as a cook's trunk is examined before she leaves her place. A fresco alleged to be by Raphael is a case in point. To secure this painting for the Louvre, Thiers appears to have conditionally bought it, subject to the Assembly voting the price, some 200,000 francs. Had he failed to purchase the picture, he would have been equally censured. When President, judges pronounced it to be a Raphael; now that he is fallen from his high estate, it is alleged to be only a copy, not worth twenty francs, and only representing even that value, as serving to throw at the head of Thiers. Indeed the very disreputable politicians assert, that the ex-President acted as an old broker, who expects to pocket a commission; others object that France has too many liabilities already without incurring more, on a par with the apothecary town councillor, who would only vote a pound of dips, to illuminate the capital in honor of the Shah. It is France that suffers in all this, not M. Thiers. Oddly enough, his paintings, his constitutional projects, and his financial schemes, are all ticketed, old lumber.

With a view of enabling the Shah to have a clear idea of France, it is proposed to present him with an elegantly bound copy of the Twelve Constitutions drawn up for the happiness of the country since 1789, and of her illustrious statesmen who have sworn fidelity for ever, to her royal, imperial, and republican forms of governments by turn. 'L'homme absurde est celui qui ne change jamais.' Not only have staff officers been sent down to receive the Shah on his arrival at Cherbourg, but a battalion of men-cooks to administer to his bodily comforts during his railing to Paris, as the train, in the case of common mortals, will not stop for even ten minutes for refreshments." As the illustrious visitor never treads on anything green, such being the colour of the Prophet's mantle—and Nora Creina's gown, 'en passant'—everything red is being bought up. It would seem he belongs to the 'Reds.' It was proposed to canvass off those parts of the city rendered bald by the Communists, but it has been decided to conceal nothing from his Majesty—show him the naked truth. There will be no fire-works, the city's budget, the richest in the world, being unable to meet an item for squibs and crackers. But the various public buildings will be illuminated, and the Pantheon promises to rival the rivers of light of St. Peter's, and thus save the Shah a journey to the Eternal City. In the matter of Bengal-lights, Catherine-wheels, and gas devices, the visitor will find us to be orthodox worshippers of Zoroaster. The military will execute the 'flambeaux' retreat; cannon will thunder as they never did since the siege and Commune, and the schoolboys, with their college chasse-pots, will form a 'light wing' during the review of the army of Paris. Bismarck cannot view our doings, as he has retired to his Hirz cave near Varzin, to study some new blood-and-iron problem. The Jockey Club has instituted a special course of races, where each prize recalls Persia; the 'Ispahan' Handicap, the 'Teheran' Sweepstakes, the 'Tauris' Hurdle Race, &c. street will be called after the Shah when he dies, the law prohibiting such an honor during the life of a celebrity. 'Haussmann,' by a Boulevard, tastes the sweets of a municipal immortality in anticipation. Tradesmen already announce themselves as furnishers of all kinds of commodities to the King of Persia; photographers and dentists are not up to time in this respect. A daily newspaper has been brought out called the Chah, destined to chronicle the visitor's movements. The apartments of the Shah are in one of the 'pavillons' of the Corps Legislatif; it is not far from the Avenue Gabriel, a sweet 'souvenir' for a follower of the Prophet; in fact, since Napoleon I. was converted to Mohammedism during his Egyptian campaign, there is a lingering belief still in the Crescent.

The Shah's bed will be that occupied by Marie Louise, with black velvet curtains and gold fringe, and a top knot of ostrich feathers, just like a royal hearse. However, there is but a step from the cradle to the grave. Two grand lamps will illuminate the Divan, which formerly served in the nuptial chamber of the late Duke of Orleans. There will be baths everywhere, and it is to be hoped no accidents will occur, as they are on a level with the floor, trap-door fashion. The grand banquet will take place in Versailles palace, in the 'galerie des Glaces,' where two centuries ago the Grand Monarch received on his Sun-throne the Persian ambassador, fit prelude for the master. It was in this same 'galerie' that the wedding of the Duke of Burgundy was celebrated by Louis XIV., when the gentlemen appeared covered with diamonds, the ladies in black velvets braided with precious stones. Some rogues managed to enter this hall of dazzling light—there were 4,000 wax candles—and 'conveyed' away many souvenirs, not hesitating to cut away a portion even of the bride's robe. May the Shah's shadow—and diamonds—never be less while here.

At the railway station of Passy where the Shah will alight to enter Paris, a hole-in-the-wall has been specially made, to permit him to pass out. The houses will display his colors everywhere—white and green, and to pay a compliment to their sisters of Teheran, the French ladies will wear at balls and dinner parties, only materials made up in green and white. At these fetes, ladies of an uncertain age it is rumored, will be excluded as vigorously as they are from the Mohammedan Paradise. The Shah eats at a side table, and prefers for guests, only princes, a class difficult to find since September 1870. Fortunately the Prince of Monaco has arrived, and as an excursion train from Russia and Roumania is due, the 'Wintztschitstopschinzoudhoffs' will supply the rest.

It is a singular time for the government to prohibit the performance of Hugo's drama "Le Roi S'Amuse," when the 'roi' of Persia is within our walls, and the object of every good citizen being to amuse His Majesty. During the Empire, which prohibited what it pleased, the drama had every freedom to be played: Louis Philippe tabooed it because it alluded to 'bastard' kings, and the great Smith I felt it was a reflection on his occupying a position destined it was alleged by Providence for the Comte de Chambord. We do not expect soldiers on active duty—it is only when on halt pay they become authors and presidents of Dorcas societies—to be 'litterateurs,' but the Military Governor of Paris ought to have been reminded that the libretto of the opera of Rigoletto is founded on Hugo's work, and has never been proscribed. Why not issue an order to put down 'political cries?' There are over a dozen streets in Paris where parrots shout from drawing-room windows "vive le Roi!" "vive l'Empereur!" "vive Thiers," and "vive la Republique." One bird has got the length of uttering "vive Mac!" A week's practice will enable it to add the "Mahon."

A curious law suit has been decided, and at which a good deal of laughing takes place. Ladies from 'the Fifth Avenue' have a known weakness for French husbands who, in addition to debts, and no available source of income, have handles to their names. The New York belles seek such eligible matches, and needy aristocrats come more than half way to find such dear creatures. Indeed there are circles, where a marquis, or a comte—barons are as plentiful as blackberries—can be hired out for an evening party, like glass, porcelaine and flowers. Well, A. M. Peniman, married his daughter to a M. de Brimont; after a year she died—from grief it is said that her husband did not possess 'all the blood of all the Howards'—leaving one child. It was an ill assorted marriage; father-in-law supplied funds during his daughter's life-time, which his son-in-law expended in a most princely style. He was astonished at receiving a claim for an annuity from his widower son-in-law, in accordance with 'French law,' and had the weakness to suggest that the young man should go and work. The American Judges took this view also, and declined to recognise the Code, that Koran of the French. An American newspaper published in Paris, had the weakness to agree with American law, and quoted extracts from the New York Herald ridiculing the pretentions of M de Brimont. The latter took an action for damages against the American journal published here, and attached the furnished apartments that J. Gordon Bennett has just taken, and intended to celebrate the Fourth of July, by a house warming. Bennett has been condemned to pay 1000 frs. fine, and 6,000 trs. damages; the other newspaper proprietor nearly the same. J. G. Bennett after swearing like a trooper, and no wonder, called his man Friday Stanley, and both have shaken the dust off their feet, in quitting the capital of Europe.

A shop sign announces the Magasin is closed on account of the re-opening.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

A fight in Entre Rios at last. While some National troops were disembarking from the war steamer Pampa, at La Paz, on the 31st, 70 Jordanites fell on them. The Pampa opened on them with shell and round shot, enabling two companies of the 5th and 7th Regiments to land and charge them with the bayonet, which was gallantly done, and in ten minutes the rebels were in full flight. The Remington rifles of the National troops played old Dick with the Jordanites, who ran manfully, leaving 140 men dead on the field. 36 prisoners, two flags, and a lot of 'materiel' in the hands of the victors. This 'grau triunfo' cost the National troops only one officer, and eight rank and file wounded.

We received by the mail a description of the Athletic sports held recently at Liverpool by the pupils of the Royal Institution School, and are happy to say that a former Buenos Ayres Athlete swept everything before him. The young hero of the day was Mr J. Drysdale, son of the senior partner in the great house of T. Drysdale & Co. of this city. Our young friend carried off the following prizes amidst vociferous cheers from a large concourse of fashionable spectators:—the 100 yards race for pupils above 15, the high jump, 'putting' a 14lb. weight, a hurdle race of 120 yards, 8 flights, throwing cricket ball, first honours, and the 220 yards race. Mr T. Drysdale also won a 100 yards race, amongst the juniors, and a 300 yards handicap, with a start of 12 yards. In addition Mr J. Drysdale obtained the Champion Cup, for having won the greatest number of prizes. We have seldom to record such a sweeping Athletic victory as the above and we warmly congratulate the young victor.

"A dowry of £8,000, good expectations, and a very old and sick father," are among the recommendations of 'a young lady of good family' advertising for a husband in a continental news paper.

A contemporary took a long shot at the Shah yesterday, and announced that he had presented to Queen Victoria a Cashmere shawl studded with diamonds, and which had cost £1,000,000 stg.!! What a miserable present from a Shah-in-Shaw to a Queen! If Her Majesty had been his mother-in-law the 'Roi des Rois' could not have behaved more shabbily. We wonder where the shawl was bought, and if it was paid for by cheque, or in gold and notes. This present is the more astounding as the total sum to be devoted to the Shah's vacation trip in Europe is only five millions of francs, or £200,000 stg. But Oriental potentates are popularly supposed to carry about with them trunks full of all the treasures of the East, to throw at everyone's head. We've had about enough of Mr. Shaw, of Persia, who is described by some impartial persons as a very dull, unintelligent party, and anything but what our rapturous London and Liverpool colleagues assert him to be.

The French mail steamer Niger arrived at Bordeaux on the 6th of July, and was clapped into quarantine for 120 hours—why or wherefore we cannot say.

The Provincial Government got rather skeared at our proposal to knock the Municipal Bonds off the Bolsa list, and has 'stumped up' the necessary 'tin' to pay the last quarter's interest. Holders can apply for it today, and we hope they wont forget the STANDARD in their prayers, as we consider they are indebted to us for getting their interest. If it should happen that they never pray, they can subscribe, present us with an address, or send us some news now and then.

The Communist miscreants in Spain are worse than their French brethren. Amongst atrocities of every description lately committed by them was a deed which makes the blood run cold to read of. They put a feeble old gentleman into a bath of petroleum, set fire to it, and left him there till he was boiled to rags!! Awful! Awful!

We received yesterday further details of the destruction of the lighthouse at Colonia. The place was burned down to the last chip, and, horrible to relate, a poor man who inhabited it as keeper was actually roasted alive. He was running round the verandah from 9½ p.m. when the fire broke out, till 1 a.m. next morning, howling in an awful manner, but was finally rescued by a brave Italian who displayed the most heroic courage in saving him. The sensation this scene caused amongst the lookers on was something fearful. The bravery of the gallant son of fair Italy was of no avail however, as the poor scorched victim died the next day after enduring the most frighttul torments.

El Argentino is the name of Don Jose M. Estrada's new paper in support of Dr. Quintana's candidature. Although we have nothing to say about this or that candidate we are glad to welcome back Mr. Estrada to the pleasant fields of literature where he was formerly so favorably known, and we hope that when so many of the new papers disappear, after the Presidential question is settled, the Argentino may be one of these that will survive October 1874.

Gen. Belgrano, whose statue is to be inaugurated some one of these days, was so fond of flowers that one of the last acts of his life was to write to M. Bompland for seeds for his garden at Tucuman.

Some doubts having been yesterday expressed in Congress about whether or not vote by ballot prevails in England we can assure our legislators in the affirmative.

We publish an interesting letter from Asuncion in another column. Things are a trifle better up there. It is hoped the Italian Consul may send the unfortunate Itapé emigrants down here immediately.

A heavy coating of hoar frost hung over the suburbs yesterday morning at day-break, but the sun made short work of it, and the day was of the most delicious description.

"A father and two sons, a few years ago, married three sisters in Iowa. The unfortunate sons have driven their unhappy parent to the verge of insanity by trying to explain the relationship of their children."

The last number of the Anales of the Rural Society is interesting, and has articles on Preserved Beef, Public Lands, Agriculture, Zoological Gardens etc etc.

A meeting of the trustees of the Irish Hospital takes place this evening, to transact important business, in reference to this most useful institution.

Several persons have asked us to tell them who won the $1000 m|c prize in the City of Buenos Ayres Tramway drawing. We really don't know, but opine that the amount will neither make nor break whoever has been fortunate enough to secure it.

The Board of Health at Montevideo has decided to subject all vessels entering from the West Coast to sanitary observation, everything and everybody landing to be fumigated from top to toe, etc. etc. This measure has been taken in consequence of rumors that some kind of disease has appeared on the Coast. There is a shivery feel also about vessels from the States, in consequence of the Cholera prevailing there.

The splendid steamer Liebnitz, Captain Hairby, will sail on the 9th. She will take the mails and a full complement of passengers and cargo. There is no finer vessel now plying between England and the Plate than the Liebnitz, nor a better seaman or more courteous gentleman than her commander.

Stop the 'Bus,' driver! There's a spring gone! A printing office is offered for sale to the highest bidder, yet not a man in town will risk buying it. Meanwhile new papers are appearing every day, and a general 'spill' must soon be the result.

"James Smith, an Australian journalist, has received a spiritual communication that the world is to be "burned as black as a forgotten toast by a wave of fire" within a year."

The 'Prophete' will shortly be produced at the Opera House on a scale of magnificence hitherto unknown on the lyric stage of Buenos Ayres. From all we hear, Sr. Pestalardo is likely to make the great operatic 'hit' of this season in the production of this splendid composition.

The debate in Congress on voting by ballot has produced magnificent efforts of oratory and erudition from Drs. Montes de Oca, Irigoyen and Del Valle. Congress has not had such a field day for a long time.

The police under Commissary Montero have just unearthed a gang of forgers, at whose head is an intelligent Teuton, now in durance vile. The talent of the association was concentrated on the manufacture of 500 dollar Provincial Bank notes, but it is to be hoped the Tribunals will now find other work for them to do.

The Consumers Gas Company is now laying down its pipes in over 300 blocks of the city.

The death of Mr. Plomer, an old and respected merchant, is announced. He was over 90 years of age, and died of acute bronchitis.

The news from the far South is of an extremely ricketty description. The 'seca' is so bad in that quarter that the average number of horned cattle dying from want of food and water is from 100 to 150 daily. The camp is covered with defunct and expiring River Plate Cows; and as much as the 'vecinos' can do is to skin the animals and secure the hides. Such a desparate state of things has not been experienced in the South for years and years.

"The Professor of History in the University College at Toronto, referring to the fallacies of Darwinism, says that 'the very worst savage obstinately refuses to be hooked on to the very best monkey.'"

"Said one student to another whom he caught swinging most lustily in a stout field of grass, 'Frank, Frank, what makes you work for a living? A fellow with your talent and abilities should not be caught engaged in hard labour. I mean to get my living by my wits.' 'Well, Bill, you can work with duller tools than I can,' was the reply."

We perceive that our colleague, Herr Ernest Oldendorff, is about to throw off his allegiance to Emperor William, Bismark and Vaterland, and become an Argentine citizen. It will be all the same in 100 years Mr. O. Meanwhile we salute you cordially.

The Italo-Platense has entered from Europe with 205 emigrants. The cry is still they come.

The latest advices from Cordoba report the venerable Bishop as somewhat better; he is greatly beloved in the city, and all pray for his recovery. One hundred and two persons took tickets in the lottery of Marriage during the month of July in the city of doctors.

Small pox continues bad in Rosario and Santa Fe, but the authorities do not appear to be taking any special measures to stop the spreading of the disease.

We received some provincial papers yesterday, but, as usual, they contain nothing but local flummery of the most indigestible description and the eternal and irrepressible electioneering rubbish.

Our French colleague extracts some remarkable figures on the value of the foreign commerce of the known world. The nett total is 65 milliards of francs. Of this Europe monopolises 44 milliards, England, of course, being at the head of the list, then France, Germany, Belgium, Holland, Austria, Italy and Russia. America is down for 12 milliards of which the States absorb 8, the other Northern Republic 2, and the whole of the South Continent 2, Asia throws in for 5½ milliards, Oceanica 2, and Africa 1½. The home trade of the world has never been accurately ascertained.

ON 'CHANGE.

August 5, 1873.

Ounces	400
Sovereigns	122½
Patacons	25
National Bonds	77½
Cedulas	87

The sudden stringency in the market continues, and Cedulas sympathize with the money market; beyond question the Cedula stock is the weakest and most speculative stock in the market, the least thing turns them either way; without any effort on the part of the bears the stock fell off to-day, but the real cause is that money out on the stock is called in or renewed at dearer rates. National Bonds show much firmer, there is less of the stock in the market, and holders for the most part seem better able to carry bonds than Cedulas; still, the money market is in such a critical state that it is doubtful if any of these stocks will hold their own until the discount rates are reduced. It was announced to-day that the National Bank will not open before October 1st, and the second call will be payable on 25th August and third call on 25th September. The list will be published in a few days.

It was said on 'Change that there was a meeting to-day at the Government House to consider the new loan of 18 millions to the Municipality. The money is badly wanted.

Another heavy failure in the almacenero line in Montevideo was announced to-day; the failure is said to be a bad one.

There is much desire to see the Provincial Bank statement for July. It is said if the figures show well, money will at once grow easier.

The run out of the Corcovado is admitted now by all to be the quickest on record, her speed averaged 14½ knots per hour, we publish the log in another column. The Galicia it seems has beaten the La France by 7 hours; quick work this; in fact, the Pacific steamers are carrying everything before them. The French M st. Niger arrived at Bordeaux on 6th, she had 235 passengers and suffered 5 days quarantine. The Italo Platense brought 247 passengers to the Plate, of which 205 for Buenos Ayres. The following steamers are on the way out—

From London, Richard Cobden, 10 July.
Do Genoa, Poitou, 10 do.
Do Liverpool, Ptolemy, 10 do.
Do do Cuzco, 16 do.
Do Havre, Etoile du Chile, 15 do.
Do do San Martin, 16 do.
Do Liverpool, Tycho Brahe 20 do.

Navigation in the Uruguay is rather ticklish at present owing to the overhauling of every vessel by war steamers; last week the Oriental schooner Concepcion from the Bobigas factory was hailed, passed on as she had a Custom House officer on board; a small boat with armed men was sent after, and she was brought back to the Ponton, reprimanded for not stopping, asked her name, and then let go; as a matter of course there is a great flare up up the river and in Montevideo about the business.

The great question of the Cuñapiru gold mines is again uppermost in Montevideo, some parties with splendid samples having come down and astonished the Montevidean editors. It would be well to remember all the money sunk and lost in Bankart's company, and how all the splendid mining machinery sent out at so much cost from England was allowed to be thrown about at the wharves of Montevideo and Salto until it was fairly destroyed. Any attempt to form a new mining company to develop that rumoured rich gold district must necessarily prove a failure with such experiences fresh on us.

Holders of Municipal Bonds are notified that to-morrow the coupons will be paid and drawings take place. But two days ago we pointed to a short, sharp and decisive way to make this stock more respected, and we are glad in the interest of the bond holders that our words carried weight in the proper quarter. The Bolsa Syndicate must be more watchful of public credit, and the day that the coupon on a bond matures and is not paid the stock should be stricken off the list.

The news from Parana was much talked of on 'Change, people who know what is going on up there say that the affair has been most decisive, and that the Government army in Corrientes is now on the move, and that we may look for stirring news shortly.

The glass manufactory in this city, we are sorry to hear, is smashed, and we hear an order is out for the arrest of the manager. A statement of the affairs of this recently formed company ought certainly to be published.

Mr. Kay, who is so well known to the steamboat builders and boiler-makers in the Plate, has been named Inspector General of the Argentine Navigation Co. (Sr. Mendez's Co.). No better or more experienced man could be named to the post.

The Mortgage Bank statement for the month of July, which we published this morning, attracted much notice. It will be seen that the emission of Cedulas is under what was estimated; the total stock in circulation does not reach ten million pats., but we hear that the applications are numerous, and the bank is now doing a splendid business, some of the very best city property being now offered.

The death of M. Plomer, an aged and respected city merchant, is announced.

At last the 'pro rata' question in the National Bank subscription list has been definitely settled. The Deputies voted the 'pro rata' to begin from subscriptions over 20 shares; the Senate altered this to 50 shares; the bill came back to the Deputies, who by a majority voted the amendment of the Senate, and the law now stands 'pro rata' on all subscriptions over 50 shares. This will give about sixty shares for every hundred subscribed. The list can now be made out and published.

The Italian Government has just granted a subsidy to a new line of Italian steamers to the Plate. The steamers are all first class, and we believe Messrs. Caprile and Picasso, of M. Video, are the River Plate agents.

Mr. Richard Cranwell of London, was warmly welcomed on 'Change to-day by his numerous friends, after an absence of 5 years from the Plate.

The treasury has ordered the payment of $f.2210 pats to Mr. Hibbert of the Gore, the June payment for the Parana college.

The Municipality of Rosario is thinking of issuing 400,000 pats in Municipal bonds, 10 per cent interest and 2 per cent amortization, the only difficulty in the business seems to be the getting a buyer for the new bonds.

Advices have come out from London of the formation of a new River Plate fixed Moorings Co. capital £80,000 sterl. in shares of £5 each, the object is to put down in the ports of Montevideo and Buenos Ayres fixed Mooring's according to the terms of the concessions granted.

The Corcovado mails have brought the following note of the export of coal to the Plate in the second fortnight of June 1873—

FOOT-BALL.

The lovers of this fine old English game should not let the cold weather pass. It is the only season in which the necessary amount of exertion can be gone through with convenience to the players and advantage to the spectators. Why wait for holidays when you have such fine nights? A bottle of Otard and Dupuy taken before starting will render you impervious to the night air, and quite indifferent as to whether the moon or sun adorns the heavens.

AVINGS BANK

BANK MAUA AND CO.

101--Calle Cangallo--103

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo, and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very lge amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing the selves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other activities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the example of their firm in Montevideo, the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

New Patent R.R. Grease

YELLOW GREASE

Manufactured and Patented by RICHARD GAMBLE.

Suitable only for this Climate and Not for Europe.

It is manufactured to suit Summer, Winter and Spring, and is only used for Railways, Tramways and Carts, Bullock Waggons, &c.

It consists of Nine different fluid oils and solidified by a chemical process. It will resist the hottest sun, and will not get into a liquid or fluid state. It is only when the action of the axles commences it becomes a rich creamy fluid, and when the action stops its again solidifies.

It is of a suitable consistency, of good lasting power, attended with but little increase of temperature even at the highest speeds, and leaves but the smallest residue in the axle boxes. A grease which is too firm will remain comparatively solid in the box, and allow the axle to become hot, whilst on the other hand one that is too thin becomes exhausted by a few miles running.

This Grease is of more importance than at first sight appears; for while the grease account a railway companies forms no inconsiderable item of expenditure, the waste of motive power and wear and tear of plant entailed by the use of unsuitable grease is enormous.

The merits of the Grease, in its general utility as a

and also for its

are shewn, when compared with other kinds hitherto used, that are entirely useless for any purpose but that of lubrication.

It is therefore much less liable to be pilfered and misapplied than tallow, lard, neatsfoot oil, potro oil, rape oil or gallipole oil.

These oils always command a ready market if pilfered, a circumstance which induced the principal railway compauies in England to adopt Yellow Grease for their protection and manufacture to suit European climate.

THE MOST Important Auction
OF THE YEAR,
BY Benjamin Nazar & Co.

No. 154 CALLE VICTORIA.

27th & 28th August, 1873.

130 Magnificent Improved Rambouillet Rams, especially bred and modified, by selection in Breeding, to suit the country, by Wilfrid Latham, of the Cabaña de los Alamos.

These Rams, so well known to Breeders, are yearly rising in their estimation, by reason of their especial qualities of suitableness to the requirements of Flockmasters, and to the conditions of soil, climate, and pastures of the country.

A large proportion of these Rams surpass in all those qualities which are desiderata for the River Plate Breeder, the best Rams of the Cabaña Imperial of Rambouillet, as may be judged by a comparison with the best imported either this year or last.

With admirable fattening form, fineness of shape and unequalled hardiness, most of them combine a length and fulness of staple, of free, undulating, coming character of wool, not to be approached by any other Merino Sheep here or in Europe. Others again are somewhat finer in staple, of singular brightness and strength, and particularly close.

These different degrees in the length and fulness of the staple in the different sheep have been specially produced, under select breeding, to harmonise with the different qualities of soil and herbage in various districts of the country.

The importance of this breed, with its exceptional qualities, is easily comprehended, through a reference to European markets, where the long, full, and bright stapled merino wools command the ready sale at the highest prices, while the short weak wools are a comparative drug.

The Rams offered for sale are 15 to 16 months old, with wool corresponding to that age. Also there will be included in the lot a few select two year old Rams, with ten months wool on.

The whole will be on view at the Auction Mart of Messrs. B. Nazar and Co., 154 Calle Victoria, for three or four days previous to the Auction. cj—230 1m jy24
